THE SCORE ON THE COUCH

A participant provoked the circle: how can psychoanalysis be barely a century old if ancient traditions have deciphered the human mind for millennia?

HISTORY

THE TALKING CURE

Modern talk therapy emerged in 1920 to treat shell-shocked soldiers in the trenches of the First World War.

4 HOURS WITH FREUD

In 1910, Gustav Mahler walked 4 hours through Leiden with Sigmund Freud after discovering his wife Alma's affair with Walter Gropius.

THE REVELATION

THE MYSTERIOUS SHAFT

Freud summarized: analyzing Mahler was like digging a deep shaft through a dark, mysterious building.

SYMPHONY & NEUROSIS

RETURN OF THE REPRESSED

Mahler's symphonies are not polite exercises: they are the musical manifestation of modern human fractures.
